

Centrale Ashton & Sécurité Garantie

November 17th, 2008.

Dear Alarm Professional,

We are pleased to announce that Centrale Sécurité Garantie has joined forces with Ashton Central to create an extraordinary and dynamic team offering the best of experience, service, technical support and state of the art surveillance technologie in the alarm industry. We are truly enthusiastic that we will be working together and combining our common expertise and extending this talent to you our partners.

With this joining of forces of the best of our two enterprises we are convinced that we will continue to offer the exceptional surveillance service that you have come to expect, while expanding our overall capabilities and product offerings. (See attached Service + Plus document)

You can be assured that Ashton Central values and will respect your business relationship with Centrale Sécurité Garantie and we look forward to both meeting and enhancing your customer experience as we come together as one organization. Our combined centrals will enable you to access new additional services for you and your clients and a new dynamic team that has but one objective: to support and help you grow your business.

It is with pride that we extend an invitation to visit our central to meet the Ashton Team and to talk to you about the new surveillance technologies which will be available to you.

With this in mind we invite you to an Open Door Day Friday the 28th of November from 9h30 to 16h00 hours. Stan Ashton and Charmen Deschènes will be available to answer all your questions in person or by telephone. If you are not available on this date please call us so we can set up another appointment. (See Map to Ashton Central & Telephone numbers attached)

Securely yours,

Stan Ashton, President Ashton Central Inc.

Charmen Deschènes, Presidente Centrale Garantie
